The SIETAR

Global Network

SIETAR, the Society for Intercultural Education, Training and Research, is the world's largest interdisciplinary network for professionals working in a broad range of intercultural fields.

Since its inception in 1974, SIETAR has grown from one international organization into a network of twenty organizations in Europe, Asia, and the Americas.

Each organization is unique, but the mission of SIETAR reaches across national and cultural boundaries to people who care about and are professionally engaged in many areas of intercultural practice.

For more information on SIETAR's global network, to find out about upcoming SIETAR USA events and conferences, or to contact other SIETAR groups in the USA, visit the SIETAR Houston Web site:

SIETAR Houston

Established in 1991, SIETAR Houston is the largest SIETAR chapter in the USA. Our members work in many intercultural environments and professions including consulting, teaching, training, counseling, healthcare, business, and human resources management.

SIETAR Houston offers a variety of programs of intercultural and multicultural interest. Our programs and professional networking take place the first or second Saturday of each month, September through June.

SIETAR Houston's monthly programs address specific cultures as well as intercultural communication topics, and are conducted by experts in the field, many of whom come from within the membership.

Admission to Programs:

Non-members $7.00, Students $5.00,
Members FREE

We meet from 9:30 am to noon at the Upper Kirby District Center located at 3015 Richmond Ave., Houston, TX 77098. We gratefully appreciate the generosity of the Upper Kirby District Center for the generous donation of meeting space to our non-profit organization

SIETAR Houston also provides speakers to groups who would like to learn more about intercultural communication.
